Frisco Senior Center

Volunteer Handbook

Welcome

The Frisco Senior Center is privileged to have volunteers' partner with the staff to provide the highest level of customer service. The time, skills, and talents of the volunteers are a great asset to the Center. The Senior Center is enhanced by the contribution and support of volunteers.

Volunteer Mission Statement

Guiding Principles for Parks and Recreation:

Mission: Leading Frisco by creating a sense of well-being through play.

Vision: Play will become essential in the lives of Frisco residents regardless of age or ability.

The National Recreation and Park Association Three Pillars: Health & Wellness, Social Equity, Conservation

Senior Center Mission: Enriching, empowering, enhancing, and valuing the lives of the City's seniors age 50 and older through a variety of quality recreational programs, activities, trips, and educational opportunity.

As volunteers, your mission is: Enhancing the experience of patrons through exceptional customer service.

Volunteers play a very important role in the Frisco Senior Center by helping us provide high quality, cost effective programs to the City of Frisco and surrounding communities. They do this in several ways:

- Volunteers compliment the services provided by our staff.
- Volunteers provide skills and support in a variety of areas which contribute to member's overall satisfaction while attending the center.
- Volunteers positively promote the Senior Center, informing the community about the services and activities that the facility offers.
- Volunteers and staff collaborate to support the mission and values of the Frisco Senior Center and the City of Frisco.
- The number of annual volunteer hours performed at the Senior Center is included in our annual budget, reflecting community involvement and cost savings provided by our valued volunteers.

Volunteer Policies and Procedures

Senior Center Member's Handbook

All volunteers must read, enforce and abide by the policies presented in the Senior Center Member Handbook.

Absenteeism and Substitution

If a volunteer must be absent, please contact the Volunteer Coordinator, McKenna Sears, at least 24 hours in advance so that the scheduled spot can be filled.

Acknowledgement Statement

After reviewing the policy and procedures, volunteers are required to sign the acknowledgement statement. By signing this form, the volunteer acknowledges having read and understood the policies and agrees to follow them.

Registration

Volunteers are required to complete the online application at www.myvolunteerpage.com to officially apply to the volunteer program. The application website will list the areas in which the volunteer can serve at the Frisco Senior Center. Applicants must be at least 18 years old to volunteer at the center.

Background Checks

The City of Frisco and Frisco Senior Center are committed to providing a safe environment for all staff, patrons and volunteers. To ensure a safe environment, volunteers are required to complete a background check as part of the volunteer application. You may be asked to do so annually.

Confidentiality

Volunteers are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all privileged information to which they are exposed to while volunteering (Ex. Phone numbers, addresses, illnesses, etc.) Volunteers will be given the confidentiality policy. After reviewing, volunteers are required to sign the form stating that they acknowledge having read and understand the policy and agrees to abide by it.

Harassment

The City of Frisco has a strict policy prohibiting employee/volunteer/patron harassment. Any form of harassment or discrimination based on gender, sexual, racial, ethnic, disability, age or religion toward the employees, volunteers or patrons will not be tolerated. A person found to be in violation of this policy may be asked to step down as a volunteer.

Safety and Security

Safety and security for all patrons, volunteers and staff is a top priority for the City of Frisco and Frisco Senior Center. If there are any concerns regarding safety or security issues, please contact staff immediately. In case of an emergency, please contact the most immediate staff member to initiate emergency response procedures. It is not the responsibility of the volunteer to perform First Aid or CPR while at the Senior Center.

Attire and Badges

Volunteers are asked to dress appropriately (No low-cut tops, shorts, etc.) Volunteer name badges will be handed out and must be worn during scheduled shifts.

Office Equipment and Phone Calls

Office equipment is intended for official center use only. Volunteers may use the computers in the Computer Lab for personal use. Volunteers are permitted the use of the telephone in the lobby for local calls or can use their cell phones to place calls in the back office.

Tracking Hours/Sign in Sheets

Volunteers will log their hours online at www.myvolunteerpage.com. There will also be a sign in sheet at the front desk that staff will keep as record to verify logged hours. It is the responsibility of the volunteer to keep accurate record of their hours online. Hours are recorded for multiple reasons including the following:

- It allows the Senior Center to recognize the valuable contributions and services of each volunteer at the annual recognition event.
- Hours are calculated and provided to the City of Frisco so that outstanding efforts of volunteers to the Senior Center and community can be recognized.
- The numbers of hours recorded annually is a performance measure included in our annual budget.

Review, Evaluation and Dismissal

The success of the volunteer program requires a comprehensive assessment. Each volunteer is encouraged to review and evaluate the Frisco Senior Center Volunteer Program. A formal process will be in place for volunteers to provide input. Additionally, each volunteer will be evaluated by the Volunteer Coordinator and provided with feedback. In the event of any conflict or complaint of a volunteer, the Frisco Senior Center reserves the right to intervene and request information from all parties to fairly assess the matter and to render a decision. The Frisco Senior Center may dismiss any volunteer that does not meet the requirements of the volunteer program or whose actions are deemed inappropriate.

Resignation

When a volunteer needs to resign from serving at the Frisco Senior Center, please communicate with the Volunteer Coordinator formally through a letter or meeting.

Orientation, Training and Development

Volunteers will go through an informational meeting and receive a packet for their review. Orientation and training will be available for new volunteers on their first day. An All-Volunteer meeting will be held once per quarter. Each volunteer area will have trainings or meetings as needed. Mandatory training such as a Food Handler's Certificate will be required for volunteers who help in the kitchen.

Staff Integration

A successful volunteer program requires that the staff and volunteers join as a team to implement the mission and goals of the Frisco Senior Center. If there is conflict between staff and a volunteer, please discuss the issue with the Volunteer Coordinator and Senior Center Supervisor, Leslie Rainey.

Volunteer Coordinator

The Volunteer Coordinator, McKenna Sears, is the designated Frisco Senior Center staff member who is responsible for the coordination and oversight of the Volunteer Program. She can be contacted via email at msears@friscotexas.gov or by phone at 972-292-6529.
